

Contents

Map of the book	4
Fortune materials	5
Fortune scripts	67
Acknowledgements	96

Fortune Gold: Map of the Book

Episode	Grammar	Interaction
1. Help	Modals of deduction and speculation Present: e.g. must Past: e.g. must have	Requests Longer request sequences Relationship and size of the request
2. A friend in need	Past perfect Form, meaning and use	Service encounters Making polite complaints Responding to complaints
3. The clock is ticking	Reported speech Tense changes depending on distance in time and possible changes in situation	Telephone calls Opening turns Closing turns
4. Safe house	Wish Wish + to + verb Wish + [that] + clause (past simple) Wish + [that] + object + would + verb	Offering to help Longer offer sequences Pre-offers
5. Twists and turns	Relative clauses Relative pronouns S-S and S-O structures Relative pronouns and relative adverbs	Dealing with unwelcome questions Expected answers Refusing to answer in the expected way Being evasive Refusing to answer
6. When will it be over?	Future forms Will Be going to Future continuous Future perfect	Taking leave / Goodbyes Goodbyes over several turns